INSPIRE. ASPIRE. ACHIEVE.

Dear Parents and Carers,

We are hosting 'Odd Sock Day' at our school on Wednesday 14th November 2018. Odd Sock Day is held to bring awareness of Anti-bullying Week, which begins on Monday 12th November. This year's focus is: 'Choose Respect', which is linked to our last term's value.

On Odd Sock Day, we would like everyone to wear odd socks! Children must still wear their normal school uniform, but wear odd socks, or brightly coloured tights on the day. This is to show that we are all different, but all equal. During Ant-bullying Week, there will be lots of different activities completed in class.

If you would like to find out more about Anti-bullying Week, you can visit this website, which includes Andy from CBeebies song 'Choose Respect':

We are hoping to enter the competition on the website, which gives us the chance of winning a visit from Andy.

We look forward to seeing your wonderful odd socks.
