

The Autumn Term is now well and truly underway and I am very pleased with how well the children have settled back into the new school year. This week we have welcomed our Reception children in full time and they have settled really well into their new routine. Over the past 3 weeks I have thoroughly enjoyed spending time with all of the children at Cogenhoe and getting to know them individually. It has been a pleasure to meet so many parents and carers at the beginning and end of the school day. I apologise if I have not managed to catch you yet, my aim is to have met all of you by the end of this half term. It was lovely to see so many of you today at our Macmillan Coffee Morning, we really do appreciate your support and hope you enjoyed the coffee, tea and cakes.

Next week I will be sending out a parental survey to gather your views on homework, school hot dinners and school trips, to inform our discussions at the Autumn Parent Forum on Monday 16th October (further information to follow). When you receive the survey please do spend a few minutes filling it in – your views really do matter to us. Please see below for some important dates for your diary. During the next few weeks you will receive more information about each event.

If you have any questions or queries please do not hesitate to contact the school office to arrange an appointment to meet with your child's class teacher, Mrs Oldham or myself.

Kind Regards,

Mrs Duggleby
